

Thanksgiving at the Conclusion of a Call (1)

(This Thanksgiving can be done by the Bishop or Representative of the synod office.)

Pastor _____, in _____ you began your call to serve as pastor here at _____. As pastor, you were called to proclaim God's word, to baptize and teach, to announce God's forgiveness, and to preside at the Lord's Table. With the gospel, you have comforted the people of _____ in times of sickness and trouble, and at the death of loved ones. Sharing joys and sorrows, you have been important to the life of this community within the church of Jesus Christ, in their service to this community, and in God's mission to the whole world.

On _____, the congregation's call to you comes to an end. As you leave this community of faith and say "farewell" to one another, we give thanks for your ministry and pray for God's blessing.

PULPIT: You were invited into this pulpit. From this place, you have proclaimed the saving Gospel of Jesus Christ countless times throughout these past years. This pulpit has not belonged to you; the saving message of Christ is not something one can possess, but only bear witness to. You have been a faithful occupant of this church's pulpit and messenger of the good news of God's love in Christ. As you leave this pulpit, we thank God for your preaching ministry.

Thanks be to God!

FONT: At this font, you have presided at the Sacrament of Holy Baptism. Through the cleansing waters of baptism, we welcome new members into the family of Christ. The gift of new life in Christ belongs to God. The church is the custodian of this rite of welcome, and you have introduced this congregation to many new siblings in the faith. You have presided as confirmands affirmed their baptismal promises. As you leave this font, we thank you for your ministry surrounding baptismal promises.

Thanks be to God!

ALTAR: At this altar you have presided at the Sacrament of Holy Communion. You have reminded the members here of how Jesus began this meal with his disciples. You have provided instruction to those who would receive it for the first time. The meal is the Lord's, and this congregation has offered this meal to all who seek to be fed with the living presence of Christ. You have presided over this meal so that it could be served in an orderly fashion. As you leave this table, we thank you for presiding at the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Thanks be to God!

CHANCEL STEP: Standing in front of this congregation, you have led services of thankfulness to God for people who have died. You have led this community in the midst of grief while expressing gratitude for God's gift of life. You have proclaimed the Good News of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and have encouraged the community with the comfort of the gospel. As you leave this sanctuary, we thank you for your presence in times of loss.

Thanks be to God!

CHANCEL: It is here that you presided at services where couples were married. You were present to rejoice with those who rejoiced. Thank you for sharing those and other great times of joy.

Thanks be to God!
